The code defines a variable `a` with the value 100, redeclares it with the value 50, declares a variable `d` without an initial value, assigns the value 150 to `z`, reassigns `z` to 200, and declares a constant `c` with the value 100. The browser's developer tools are not visible, and the page appears to be a simple HTML document with embedded JavaScript.
